Dear Mr. Mazoch,

April 9, 2013

Congratulations to you and all of your employees for earning the inaugural Distributor Safety Award at the GAWDA convention in Colorado Springs. Your success in providing a safer work environment for your employees is indicative of your impressive business acumen, and is sure to pave the path forward to future success.

As a lifelong resident of the Texas Gulf Coast, and a proud business owner, I have always treasured hard work and firm business ethics. I know personally the risk, uncertainty, and long hours that inevitably accompany those who manage businesses, and so I congratulate you and your team on the success of Coastal Welding Supply, Inc. I pledge to continue fighting for the economic prosperity of all business owners in Southeast Texas by easing the burdens imposed by overregulation and stifling taxation.

Once again, congratulations on your recognition for workplace safety. Please do not hesitate to contact my office if we can ever be of any help to you, and know that Coastal Welding Supply has a friend in Washington, DC so long as I represent this district.

Sincerely,

Randy Weber
